

Design and Technologies Teacher (Hospitality)

Position Details:

John Wollaston Anglican Community School (JWACS) is seeking an innovative and creative, Design and Technologies Teacher with a specialisation in Hospitality, commencing in Term 2, 2026. This ongoing position offers flexible FTE options and can be appointed between 0.8 to 1.0 FTE for the right candidate.

Reporting to the Head of Innovation, Design and Technologies, the successful candidate will join a collaborative, future-focused team dedicated to enhancing student engagement and achievement across the Technologies learning area.

In this specialised role, you will deliver Hospitality Certificate courses to senior students, providing high quality vocational education and meaningful alternate pathway opportunities. To be considered for this role, applicants must hold a Certificate II in Hospitality and a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment. A Certificate II in Cookery or a willingness to undertake upskilling in this area, will be highly regarded, as will the ability to teach textiles.

We are seeking an educator who brings not only the required qualifications, but also a genuine passion for the hospitality industry. Your industry knowledge, creativity and enthusiasm for food and service will help shape engaging, practical learning experiences for students pursuing VET pathways.

Discover JWACS

JWACS is member of the AngliSchools network, a collective of schools committed to delivering high quality, values-based education.

We are a co-educational Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12-day school, nestled in the picturesque foothills of the Darling Range in Perth's south-east. Proudly Anglican, the School fosters excellence and care within an inclusive environment underpinned by Christian values.

At the heart of JWACS is a strong, supportive community. Our students are respectful and engaged, and the school is known for its culture of connection, aspiration and achievement.

Why Join Us?

- We foster an inclusive and diverse culture where every staff member is respected, included and recognised for the unique role they play in our shared success.
- We work as a team where collaboration is at the heart of what we do.
- We value our staff and actively support their ability to balance professional responsibilities with personal wellbeing.
- We are invested in the development of our staff, actively supporting professional learning and career progression.
- We offer a competitive remuneration.
- We offer generous fee discounts for staff with children enrolled across the AngliSchools network.

Selection Criteria:

We are seeking an individual who will:

- Actively support the Mission, Vision, Ethos and Values of AngliSchools and John Wollaston Anglican Community School.
- Actively support and promote a child safe culture, including knowledge of mandatory reporting, proactive behaviours and professional boundaries.
- Demonstrate understanding of the content and structure of the Design and Technologies curriculum, contemporary learning theory and appropriate means of monitoring and assessing student achievement.
- Demonstrate experience in Design and Technologies (Hospitality) with a high level of competence in teaching lower secondary students as well as Year 11 and 12 pathways.
- Demonstrate the ability to differentiate curriculum and modify tasks to support diverse student needs.
- Demonstrate the ability to inspire students and to develop in them a love and appreciation of learning.
- Demonstrate strong ICT skills, with a working knowledge of the SEQTA platform.
- Demonstrate excellent organisational and administrative skills appropriate to planning and coordinating a range of teaching programs, including strong written and verbal communication skills and effective time management.
- Demonstrate excellent interpersonal skills, being inclusive, collaborative, approachable, a good listener and having the capacity to establish and maintain positive relationships with staff, students, parents and carers.
- Demonstrate the professional attributes and skills of a highly competent classroom practitioner, demonstrating a commitment to life-long learning.

Essential Requirements:

- Bachelor of Education or a degree qualification supported by a Post Graduate Diploma of Education.
- Qualification in Certificate II Hospitality.
- Qualification in Certificate IV Training and Assessment.
- Registration with the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia.
- Hold a current Working with Children Card or be willing to obtain.

Application Instructions:

To apply for the Design and Technologies (Hospitality) position, please submit your applications via email to employment@jwacs.wa.edu.au

Please note: Applications submitted through SEEK will not be accepted.

Your application should include:

- A one-page cover letter introducing yourself, outlining your interest in the Design and Technologies (Hospitality) position, and sharing the strengths and qualities you would bring to the position.
- A current resume, including the contact details of three referees.

Applications close at 9:00am on Wednesday 11 March.

John Wollaston
ANGELICAN COMMUNITY SCHOOL

For further information about this role, please contact the Manager of Human Resources on 9495 8119.

Please be aware that JWACS may commence interviews and make an appointment before the closing date. Early applications are encouraged.