

Primary Music Teacher

About the Role:

John Wollaston Anglican Community School (JWACS) is seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic Music teacher to join our Primary Specialist team.

This is a six month, fixed-term, part-time (0.8 FTE) position commencing Term 3, 2026, with working days on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

The successful applicant will teach Music across Years 2–6, creating enriching, engaging and holistic musical learning experiences for students.

Key Responsibilities:

- Design and deliver engaging, high-quality music lessons that reflect current pedagogical practices and support the holistic development of each student.
- Design, adapt and implement differentiated learning experiences to support students with diverse abilities, strengths and learning needs.
- Foster a love and appreciation of music in students through creative, inclusive and developmentally appropriate learning experiences.
- Implement assessment and reporting practices and communicate student progress to parents.
- Uphold the School's values, policies and procedures to create a safe, inclusive and nurturing learning environment.

About You:

- You hold a Bachelor of Music Education, a Bachelor of Primary Education with Music specialisation, or a relevant Music degree supported by a Postgraduate Diploma of Education (or equivalent).
- You are registered with the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia (TRBWA), or eligible for registration.
- You hold a current Working with Children Check and actively support a strong child-safe culture.
- You hold valid Australian working rights.
- You demonstrate a strong understanding of contemporary pedagogical practices, with excellent musical knowledge and musicianship skills.
- You are passionate about fostering a love and appreciation of music through engaging, holistic learning experiences.
- You have strong communication and interpersonal skills, enabling you to build respectful, collaborative relationships with students, families and colleagues.

Why Join Us?

- We foster an inclusive and diverse culture where every staff member is respected, included and recognised for the unique role they play in our shared success.
- We work as a team where collaboration is at the heart of what we do.
- We value our staff and actively support their ability to balance professional responsibilities with personal wellbeing.
- We are invested in the development of our staff, actively supporting professional learning and career progression.
- We offer a competitive remuneration

About JWACS:

JWACS is member of the AngliSchools network, a collective of schools committed to delivering high quality, values-based education.

We are a co-educational Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12-day school, nestled in the picturesque foothills of the Darling Range in Perth's south-east. Proudly Anglican, the School fosters excellence and care within an inclusive environment underpinned by Christian values.

JWACS is among a small number of independent schools in Western Australia that is authorised to teach the International Baccalaureate (IB) PYP. While children still address the mandated State Curriculum, the PYP encourages students to step beyond the confines of traditional learning in each subject area and structures frameworks around six main themes.

At the heart of JWACS is a strong, supportive community. Our students are respectful and engaged, and the school is known for its culture of connection, aspiration and achievement.
