

Science Teacher

About the Role:

John Wollaston Anglican Community School (JWACS) is seeking a passionate and dedicated Science teacher to cover a period of Long Service Leave. This is a fixed term, part-time position (approximately 0.8 FTE) for Term 3, 2026 offering the opportunity to join a welcoming, supportive and highly collegial School community.

The ability to teach ATAR Biology would be highly desirable, though not essential. This opportunity would suit both experienced and recent graduates who are enthusiastic about inspiring students and making a positive impact in a supportive learning environment. You'll be supported by an experienced Science team, with existing programs, resources and pastoral structures in place - allowing you to focus on high quality teaching and building positive relationships with students. If you are committed to high-quality teaching and fostering curiosity and achievement in Science, we encourage you to apply.

Key Responsibilities:

- Deliver engaging, student-centred lessons aligned with contemporary teaching practice and the Western Australian Curriculum.
- Differentiate learning and adapt tasks to meet diverse student needs.
- Maintain clear, detailed and timely records of student achievement and development, and communicate effectively with parents and guardians to support student learning and wellbeing.
- Inspire students and encourage a love of learning.
- Provide pastoral care that supports students' wellbeing, engagement and growth.
- Upholding the school's values, policies and procedures to create a safe, inclusive and nurturing learning environment.

About You:

- You hold a Bachelor of Education or a degree qualification supported by a Post Graduate Diploma of Education.
- You are relationship-focused and demonstrate strong emotional intelligence.
- You communicate clearly and professionally to build respectful, collaborative relationships across the School community.
- You are highly organised, adaptable and responsive to the dynamic needs of learners and a busy learning environment.
- You hold valid Australian work rights.
- You are currently registered with the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia (TRBWA) or eligible for registration.
- You have a valid Working with Children Check or a willing to obtain one.

Why Join Us?

- We foster an inclusive and diverse culture where every staff member is respected, included and recognised for the unique role they play in our shared success.
- We work as a team where collaboration is at the heart of what we do.

- We value our staff and actively support their ability to balance professional responsibilities with personal wellbeing.
- We are invested in the development of our staff, actively supporting professional learning and career progression.
- We offer a competitive remuneration.
- We offer generous fee discounts for staff with children enrolled across the AngliSchools network.

About Us:

JWACS is member of the AngliSchools network, a collective of schools committed to delivering high quality, values-based education.

We are a co-educational Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12-day school, nestled in the picturesque foothills of the Darling Range in Perth's south-east. Proudly Anglican, the School fosters excellence and care within an inclusive environment underpinned by Christian values.

At the heart of JWACS is a strong, supportive community. Our students are respectful and engaged, and the school is known for its culture of connection, aspiration and achievement.
